

Job Description

Engineering Tech (Operations)

Summary

The Engineering Technician role provides analytical and communications support for the Operations management group. This position is based in Midland, TX.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Developing, maintaining, and updating spreadsheets and other tracking tools to assist engineers and management in monitoring operational measures and results
- Gathering data from various sources including team members, supporting teams and vendors to update tracking tools
- Developing reporting formats (plots, charts, and tables, etc.) for the presentation of measures, to identify trends, and to communicate results to management
- Participating in various team meetings and assist with documentation of minutes and action items
- Assisting management with formal presentations

Skills & Experience

- Associate or Bachelor's degree in engineering or similar technical discipline, Bachelor's preferred
- A minimum of 4 years of work experience as an operations engineering technician, or similar technical role, in the upstream oil & gas industry, required
- Demonstrated work experience and proficiency with SpotFire, Procore, Wellview, would be considered a plus.
- Good understanding and knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel, Outlook and PowerPoint
- Demonstrated mechanical aptitude
- Knowledge of oilfield terminology and operations

Supervisory Responsibilities

This position is an individual contributor and does not have any direct reports

This position requires a valid state issued driver's license and employees must pass an initial drug and alcohol screening at hire. Incumbents in this position are also subject to random drug and alcohol screenings.

TO APPLY, PLEASE SUBMIT A COVER LETTER & RESUME TO: HR@SOLARISMIDSTREAM.COM